

Stanford University

It is my pleasure to inform you that Mike Devlin will be joining us on January 4, 2016 as a Senior Assistant Dean/Deputy Director of Admission. He will be reporting to Colleen Lim.

Mike started out as an Admission Counselor at his alma mater, University of Massachusetts Amherst, and was promoted to an Assistant Director of Admission after a year. His primary responsibilities included reviewing student applicants in the fields of Music, Art, and Dance; liaising with faculty to increase enrollment for the Fine Arts Programs; organizing and overseeing the use of publications used for travel; coordinating campus-wide resource fairs for prospective students and their families; and co-organizing all Open House Events for admitted students.

In 2007, Mike moved on to New York University (NYU) where he worked directly with university deans to set enrollment goals for freshman and transfer classes; managed the freshman and transfer admission processes for the Steinhardt School of Culture, Education and Human Development, the Silver School of Social Work, and the College of Nursing; oversaw the creation and implementation of a new on-line application for the College of Nursing; oversaw the implementation of a new academic scholar selection criteria to increase diversity in their student body; trained all new staff members in public speaking and NYU presentation procedures; and managed three professional staff.

Since 2012 Mike has served as the Director of Admission for NYU Shanghai, the university's newest degree-granting campus. He was charged with the responsibility of building an admission office from the ground up which provided him with the opportunity to manage staff across locations in New York, Shanghai, and London. Mike also worked with university leadership to implement long-term plans for outreach and enrollment and chaired all admission committees for the first three classes.

He received a B.A. in Political Science from UMass and a Master of Urban Planning from NYU's Wagner School of Public Service.

Please join me in welcoming Mike Devlin to UGA!

Best,
Judi
